Washington, Jan. 30.-The commisrioner of Indian affairs has received a Greece tell of a horrible disaster wronght report from Indian Agent Hal J. Cole. by an avalanche. One of these huge who investigated the trouble among the Okonogan Indians, but more especially ing down from the mountains upon the among those living off the reservation in Okonagan county, on account of the lynching of a young Indian named "stephen," who was confined in the county pail at Conconnelly as one of the supposed murderers of white Freighter Cole several weeks ago. Deputy Sheriff Ives, in attempting to arrest Captain John, whom it is supposed murdered 'ole, killed the indian.

Young Stephen on Jan. 5 gave himself up to the authorities with the anderkilling Cole by law, as he Lelieved he could prove himself innocent. On the 7th he was examined and his bonds friends were getting the bonds twentyfive masked men on the 8th went to the jail and demanded, at the point of their guns, the release of the pusoner. He was then taken a short distance from the jail and hanged to a tree. Stephen was not more than 15 years of age. The agent says it was a cowardly act.

On account of threats made by friends of the young Indian the governor sent 200 rifles and 5,000 rounds of ammunition, and treops were held in reaciness to move at a moment's notice. The Wandering dew-Calmet's "History of the Bible" has this to say of the Wandering Jew: He being framed in ornamental borders and was the porter of Pontius Pilate, and was called Calaphilus. When the mol was dragging Jesus to the judgment hall Calapholus struck him, saying: "Go faster, Jesus! Go faster. Why dost thou linger!" Jesus replied, "I am inleed going; but thou shalt tarry till I ome." Soon this man was converted and took the name of Joseph. He is supposed to live forever, but every 100 ears he falls into a trance, upon awakning from which he finds himself at the ame age as when the Saviour said these words to him. The Marion B. P. O. E. will give a grand minstrel and vambeville entertainment some time in February. We can safely say in advance it will be a stupendous success convivially. The Marion Elks never do anything by halves. It's a full case every time, an i then some, yet even if it draws the last copper from the exchequer. We took part in one of their entertainments nce upon a time, and we know what we are talking about. Eight niggers on the end, Hon. B. G. Young in the middle, and "three little maids from school" smiling from the last round of the band stand. Our old friend, Col. Geo. Christian, was central figure in this boquet of black sunflowers, further than that he was a sight. But his irregular appearance was somewhat soft. ened by his melodious voice, which clung to the same air through the various choruses. As a singer he is a great after a week's pleasant visiting among success, but he shines to best advantage in mixed quartets. We are informed George will take one of the ends, and spring the old chestnut, "Who was the father of Abrahane's children. This alone is worth the price of admission, saying nothing of Henry Strelitz's German condealities and Billy Moore' impersonation of "Patsy and the Pan-
